

Traffic

- Updated travel demand studies show that approximately 43% of the traffic volumes on US 287 would stay on the existing US 287 if a new route was built
- 57% of traffic would be diverted to the new route and no improvements, (sidewalk, center turn lane, or shoulders) would be made on the existing alignment